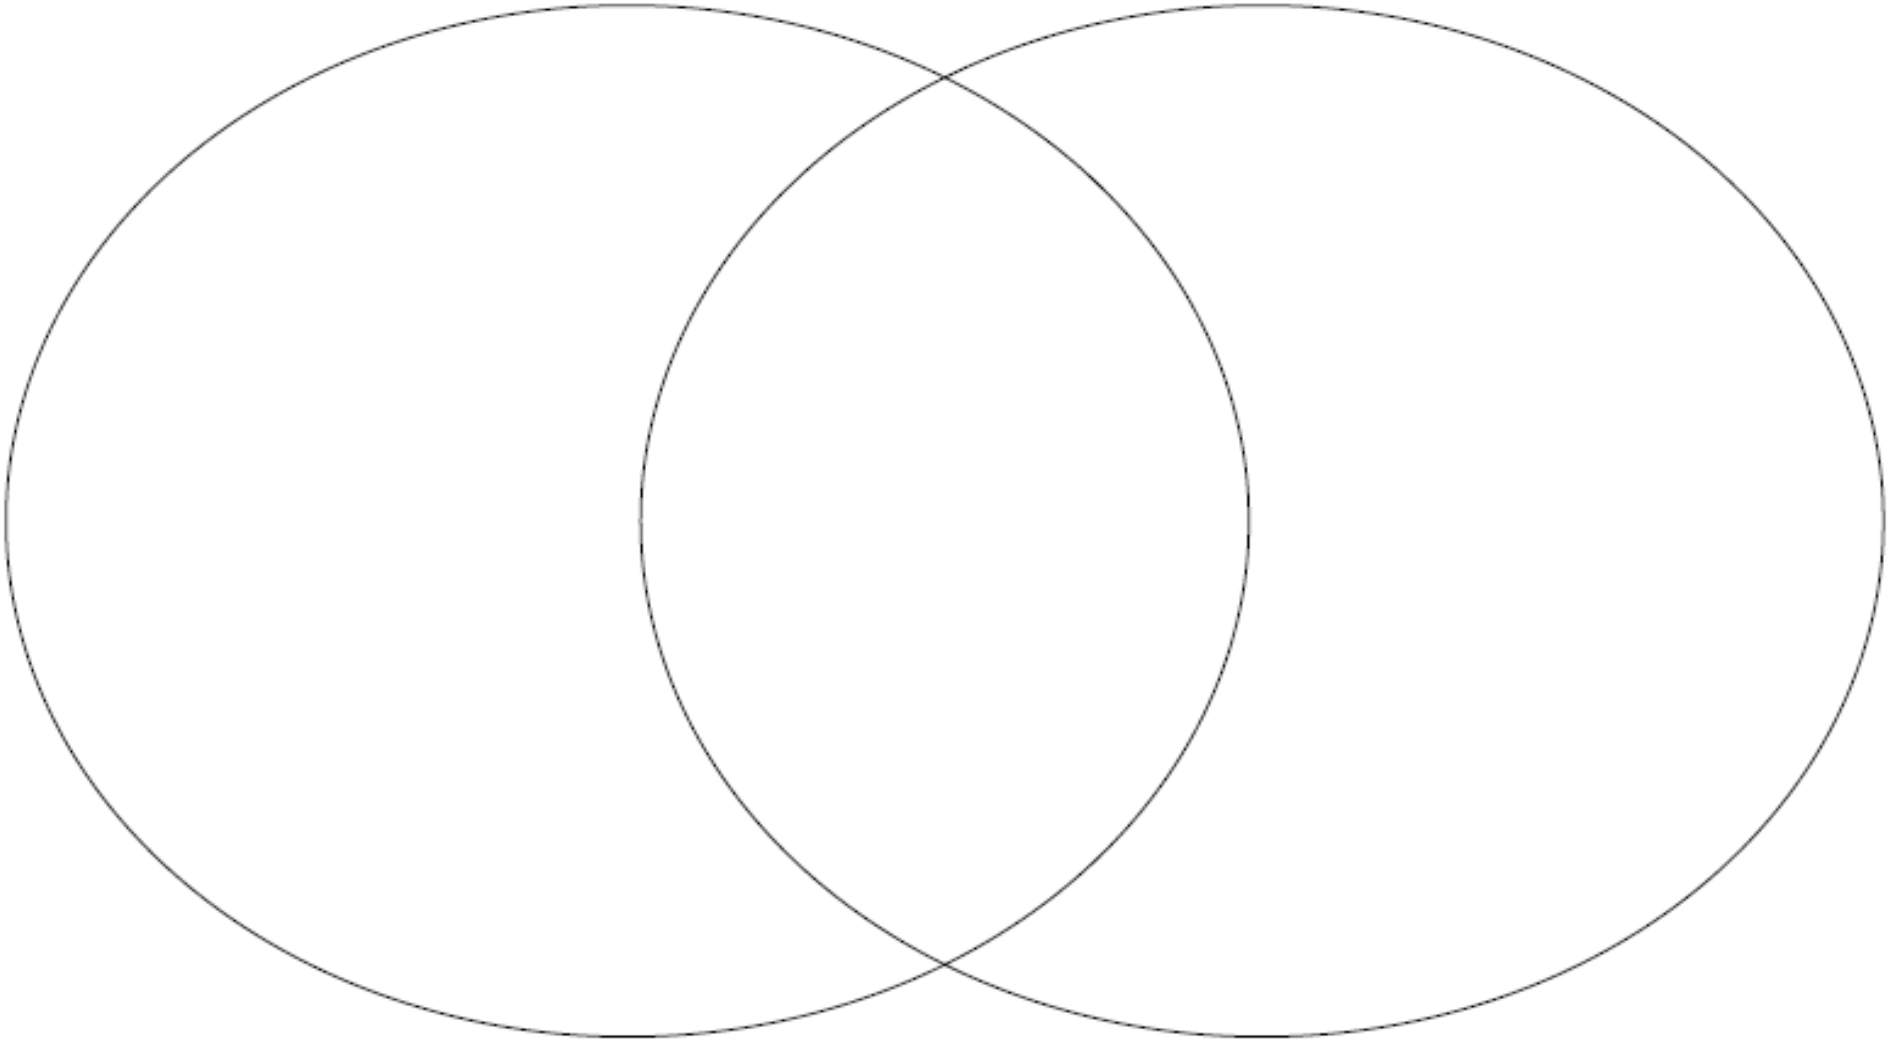
#1 Compare/Contrast the two major waves of immigration to the United States

1st Wave vs. 2nd Wave of Immigration Venn Diagram

1st Wave of Immigration

2nd Wave of Immigration



World Map

#2

U.S. Immigration Animated Map Instructions

- FIRST WAVE OF IMMIGRATION, 1810-1860:
- 1. Paste the blank map of the world into PowerPoint, Gimp or a paint program. In the bottom right corner, create a box where the map key will be; label it “Key - FIRST WAVE OF IMMIGRATION, 1810-1860”
- 2. Create three small boxes or slashes inside your key to represent Germany, Ireland and Great Britain.
- 3. Color the boxes and countries Germany, Ireland, and Great Britain the colors of your choice to mark where immigrants came from during the first wave.
- 4. Label the U.S. cities of New York City and Boston to mark where these immigrants settled.
- 5. Create and animate SEVERAL different lines, of the same color of the countries, with ship icons going from the colored European countries, across the Atlantic, to the Northeast coast of U.S. to mark immigrants’ journey to U.S. Animations can be done in PowerPoint or in Gimp and made into a GIF.
- 6. In PowerPoint you will create hyperlinks for each group of immigrants, connecting to other PowerPoint slides featuring information and historical images of the immigrants’ experiences coming to America.

- SECOND WAVE OF IMMIGRATION, 1861-1920:
- 7. Create another box in the bottom left corner and label it “Key - Second Wave of Immigration (1861-1920).”
- 8. Create twelve small boxes or slashes inside your key. Color the following countries the colors of your choice to mark where the immigrants came from during the second wave:
- Norway
- Russia
- Austria
- Italy
- Spain
- Japan

Sweden
Poland
Greece
France
Portugal
China

- 9. Place a dot in pencil and label the U.S. city of San Francisco to mark where Asian immigrants settled.
- 10. Create and animate SEVERAL different lines, of the same color of the countries, with ship icons going across the Atlantic or Pacific to their destinations. (Remember: Asian immigrants mostly settled on the West Coast with the highest concentration in San Francisco). Animations can be done in PowerPoint or in Gimp and made into a GIF.
- 11. In PowerPoint you will create hyperlinks for each group of immigrants, connecting to other PowerPoint slides featuring information and historical images of the immigrants’ experiences coming to America.