

Henry VIII and the Divorce

1	2	3
4	5	6
7	8	9

Using your knowledge of events surrounding Henry's divorce, create a cartoon photo story of the major events.

Use the titles at the bottom to help you - make sure you get the order correct though!

Marks for:

- Historical accuracy
- Neatness
- Presentation
- Clarity

Titles

The Pope refuses to allow Henry to get a divorce. Henry is disgusted.	Pope allows Henry to marry Catherine - even though she is his brother's widow.	Henry is annoyed at Catherine, they have a daughter called Mary.
As Catherine gets too old to have children, Henry begins an affair with Anne Boleyn.	As he hasn't had a son, Henry thinks God is punishing him for marrying Catherine.	Henry listens to the Protestants, they say he can be the Head of his own Church.
Henry makes himself Head of the Church, and his divorce with Catherine is allowed.	Anne falls pregnant. Henry thinks this is his chance to have a son!	After everything, Henry and his new wife Anne have a daughter - Elizabeth.

By Mr Field
www.SchoolHistory.co.uk

