

REVIEW: THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION – FOUNDING A NATION

Directions: The following terms will appear on the exam in some form. Be sure you understand what each term is as well as the historical significance of that term.

Proclamation of 1763
Albany Plan of Union
Pontiac's Rebellion
Stamp Act
Declaratory Act
Committees of Correspondence
Boston Massacre
Tea Act
Coercive Acts
Quebec Act of 1774
Thomas Paine's Common Sense
Second Continental Congress
Declaration of Independence
Tories & Loyalists
American Army vs. British Army
Allies of the American Cause for Independence
Battles of: Long Island, Saratoga, Trenton, Yorktown
Peace of Paris (1783)
Slavery & The American Revolution
Articles of Confederation vs. U.S. Constitution
Continental Congress
Shay's Rebellion
Northwest Ordinance
Constitutional Convention of 1787
Three-Fifths Compromise
Virginia Plan vs. New Jersey Plan
Connecticut Compromise (Great Compromise)
Bicameral Legislature
Federalists vs. Anti-Federalists
Ratification of the Constitution
Alexander Hamilton's Economic Plan
Protective Tariff
National Bank
Strict Construction vs. Loose Construction (aka Strict Interpretation vs. Loose Interpretation)
Bill of Rights
The Federalist Papers
Whiskey Rebellion
Federalism
Checks and Balances
Political Parties