

Protection Under the Law

Write a sentence about how government protects people.

Give two examples of what might happen if society did not have government and rules.

1.

2.

Write a paragraph about the Triangle factory fire. Explain how the government could have prevented the fire. What rules could they have put in place?

TRIANGLE SHIRTWAIST FIRE

Directions: In March 1911, a devastating fire took place in New York City at the Triangle Shirtwaist factory. This tragedy drew the attention to the dangerous labor conditions that emerged from industrialization. Watch the video from the New York Series and take notes on the details of the event. Use the notes to write an article that would appear the next day in the New York World detailing the events of the fire.

Use this space to take notes during the video:

Title:

Headline:

Story:

[illegible]